

Nathan Mack

Virginia Beach, VA • (757) 777-5029

nathanemack@gmail.com

Passionate Cybersecurity Student | Seeking Computer Science Internship

Top Skills

- Eagerness and ability to explore unfamiliar technologies, acquire new competencies, and adapt to the current work environment.
- Experience with many common programming languages and excellent critical thinking skills.
- Effective communication skills, great with teamwork and collaboration, and constructive time management and organization capabilities.

Work Experience

Walgreens, Virginia Beach

Certified Pharmacy Technician (CPhT)

November 2020 – Present

Certified by the National Association of Boards of Pharmacy to organize, calculate, dispense, and sell medications and prescriptions to meet the healthcare needs of diverse patient populations. With a keen attention to detail and a commitment to adhering to regulatory standards, I ensure the safe and effective delivery of pharmaceutical care, fostering trust and confidence among patients and healthcare professionals alike.

D&B Properties, Chesapeake

Intern Tech Consultant

September 2019 – June 2020

Internship at real estate company, managing network file storage, remote file access, and other projects at the request of my mentor.

Education

Old Dominion University

Bachelor of Science, Cybersecurity (In Progress)

Anticipated Graduation 2024

September 2022 – Present

Tidewater Community College

Associate of Science, Computer Science

January 2021 – May 2022

Technical Expertise

- Proficient in Python, C#, SQL, and scripting languages.
- Strong command line skills and fundamental network log analysis abilities.
- Experience with Linux OS (Ubuntu, Kali) and Windows OS (XP, 7, 10, Server 2012).
- Familiarity with HTML, CSS, and JavaScript for web development.
- Microsoft Office, including Access.